A Messenger's MesSAGE

"In ancient times a SAGE was a messenger, delivering profound truths to an individual or a collective group" ...
Here is your MesSAGE for the next 4 months ...

IF YOU WERE BORN IN:

JANUARY: Believing in yourself makes a difference in your own life and many others too. Expect many blessings to come your way!

FEBRUARY: It is time where you may choose a simpler way that enables and honours you. Be open; you will be extremely surprised!

MARCH: Let go of things that no longer serve you, aligning to simplicity and flow. Be discerning with your choices to reap rewards!

APRIL: Your energy is heightened and lightened when you are on purpose. Stay connected to your heart; this keeps you in balance!

MAY: Your dreams may be fulfilled with focus and intent. Clear the way by letting go and aligning with energies of support!

JUNE: Now is the time to strengthen your connection to your authenticity. This streamlines your direction, creating fulfillment!

JULY: Thought forms of the past are being erased, clearing way for a stronger connection to source. Expect revelations!

AUGUST: Allow yourself to sink into self. There you will realize you have many choices; say yes only to ones that truly speak to you!

SEPTEMBER: You are ready to be prompted to a new beginning, giving way to the unknown. This appears familiar, stirring passion from within!

OCTOBER: You are being given many opportunities. Be discerning with your choices by honouring your heart. This aligns you on your path for this time!

NOVEMBER: Your desire of seeking truth is being tested. Connect with your heart. Doing so gives you strength to recall what you truly know!

DECEMBER: You have energy to start something new. Open your heart to receive guidance from within. What shows up will be exactly what you are looking for!
