

Grandfather Dragonfly is an ancient Vancouver Island Chief who shares his love, wisdom and ways of the 'old ones' with great joy. His speech is slow - thoughtful and 'unpolished' yet always overflowing with love.

L . I . S . T . E . N

L.I.S.T.E.N to the water - it's singing a Love Song to the people.
L.I.S.T.E.N to the whales and dolphins - they understand the rhythm.
L.I.S.T.E.N to your heart beating - it's singing a Love Song too!

Think about a vibration: pure, perfect, shining with love from the heavens to the heart of Mother Earth. A vibration that could rock a sleeping baby or 'make wind' for the flying ones – not only the birds, but the two-leggeds who are also 'trying' to fly. If you want help flyin - you gotta listen to the water. Dragonfly used to fly - but it was different...it was flyin that came from the power of a BIG love inside. It came from KNOWING the feeling of the quiet spaces between your breathing. There are even empty spaces between the letters of your words when you say them, 'soundless resonance' you'd call it now. Dragonfly knows that sounds crazy - but your minds are different than in the old days - they're kinda cloudy now, from lack of good water.

You know, you could BE STILL and listen. People don't do that much anymore...but Dragonfly wonders, how can you hear Mother Earth talkin if you are never quiet? How can the whales teach you anything when there is so much noise - their songs cannot be heard? Mother has lots of secrets and she'll share them when the people are ready to l.i.s.t.e.n. But first, you gotta listen to yourself. Pay some attention to the water inside you - find the ways of understanding everything inside yourself first. The real water comes from all over the universe. Inside you can resonate with her vibrations of Stability, Forgiveness, Love and Harmony. You can match it in your own way.

Water is a Universal Communication System - that's why there's so much of it. Water has layers of vibration, and the patterns are different with each layer. The water codes are different again in the ocean, in the rivers, and in the raindrops. Every kind of water has its own resonance, and that also has to do with 'the colour' of the water-layers. The deeper you go the colour changes, the sound changes, the 'vibrational complexities changes. That's a big idea... but it is still very simple.

All you need to remember now is your body is water, like the ocean in some parts and like the river in others. You're all about the water. There's a reason for that...one day you'll remember. Today you just gotta be kind and honour ALL things, not just the few things you like the best. These are days for livin' and nights for dreamin'. Times to begin again and remember what you knew a long time ago. The whales remember! When 555:777:999 started lining up, a good thing happened...the whales said again they wanted to help you and they are sticking to their promise. You can trust a whale, that's why they're the record keepers.

So one day you are gonna be ONE with the water inside you and the water in/on the planet and you'll 'wake up' your own water pattern. It only makes sense if all the water has unique vibrations that you do too. The whales will help you cause it's easier for them now, the waves for communicating are opening up. They can teach you alright, but first you gotta be lined up inside yourself. Drinking water can help you do that. The whales can help you quicker when you are loving and kind because your vibration sounds good then. Think about it, if you were a whale ... you'd like to hear YOU singing a love song too! L.I.S.T.E.N. The whales are waiting. One of these days they are going to show you the lightcodes they know about. You can't buy a ticket to that show, but one day it will just happen, because there'll BE SO Much Love! So, the water songs are starting to come back. Singing, dancing water. I can tell you that the water is your BIG friend, inside and out.

EVERY day, I LOVE YOU like an old chief loves the soft moss in the forest. That's why I'm saying this now. It's ALL about LOVING.

Grandfather Dragonfly has a friend he calls 'The One Who Hears Crystals Singing' whom people call Gabriole. Dragonfly is grateful she shares her space, so he can talk to you too. dragonfly@EAGLEEyeONE.com
