

Zero Point... ...Is The Wand Magic?

Self-Care Evolution

This is the first time I've ever had something in my hand that has the ability to demonstrate as fast... as effectively... as dynamically... and 100% of the time as this... Amized® Fusion Technology. It has started a Self-Care Evolution. The technology is revolutionary, proprietary and exclusive. It's all about Zero Point Field Resonance.

So you're probably thinking, What is that?

If you take a high-powered microscope and looked at your finger, toe, floor, tabletop... if you go deep enough down into inner space, everything looks the same and you see the building blocks of the universe -- electrons, protons and neutrons. Go one dimension deeper and we have sub-space particles. One dimension below that is the Zero Point Field Energy. In 1913 Albert Einstein identified that it does EXIST. Nikola Tesla worked with Free Energy technology. It is a giant reservoir that has all the energy from which everything manifests. Everything starts or originates at Zero Point Field Energy. Let's just call that "Source". Zero Point Field Energy reminds our bodily cells to return to "Source". It reminds our body to be in a 100% balanced state of perfect vibrancy and harmony.

Amized® Fusion Technology is a resonance technology developed over a period of 15 years of research, applying the principles of Quantum Physics and Quantum Mechanics. The technology has the capacity to infuse Zero Point Field Energy into our body and the products we use, wear, and ingest.

As in the homeostasis condition (relatively stable healthy condition), our body's Bio-energy field can automatically access the Zero Point Life Force Energy from the environment and removes deficiencies bringing all aspects of our life into harmony (mental, emotional, physical and spiritual).

Amized® Fusion Technology is brand new to North America and everyone that experiences this "Zero Point Field Energy" technology has achieved tremendous benefits in their health.
