

A Messenger's MesSAGE

"In ancient times a SAGE was a messenger, delivering profound truths to an individual or a collective" ...

In times of change and chaos, we all need to be reminded of our own power and how we may contribute to the outcome.

Here is your MesSAGE for this issue ...

Read your own birth month and feel free - in the spirit of ONEness- to benefit from other months as well.

January: Remember, gateways open creating positive changes when you are willing to let go of anything that no longer serves you; clear on all levels!

February: Each & every day, practice being 'in the moment' - by doing so you are fully open to receive in the NOW. Expect wondrous surprises!

March: Be centered & poised to receive guidance; a new aspect of you is being revealed, bringing you a greater sense of purpose!

April: Align with springtime; plant your intentions as sacred seeds; nurture with love & be grateful for beautiful outcomes!

May: Allow yourself to receive on every level of your being; open your heart, expand your mind!

June: Prepare for interesting changes; be willing & open to accept opportunities & invitations with joy!

July: Remember, your gratitude for the simple pleasures you experience daily contributes immensely to the bigger vision!

August: New beginnings & fresh starts inspire & rejuvenate your soul; welcome them, live & enjoy!

September: Utilize the vitality of expanding energy to fuel your heartfelt dreams; enjoy the freedom this creates!

October: Know that your patience & faith pays off; coming changes will clearly show you that this is so. Stay tuned!

November: Movement & change is evident. Your willingness to accept them without judgement allows you to experience freedom!

December: Commit daily loving yourself unconditionally; remind yourself not to take life too seriously. It cuts off the magic!
