

With LOVE and Gratitude !

Travel to the center of the heart.

It is easy to find your way if you pause now and again to look carefully at the big picture, to enable you to see your way clearly. LOVE always shows the way.

And then from the peaceful, beautiful power at the center of your heart, begin your journey outward to share your love with the world.

Colour The Heart as a reflection of how gentle, kind and loving you intend to be. TOGETHER with Love and Gratitude for each other, we WILL change the world.
