The CALM - “Beyond” The Storm

What an amazing Energetic Time it is right now here on Mother Earth. Amid the noise and the haste, there is a calmness in the air and it is ours for the taking. It is different than before - this calm is not announcing a storm...it is above and beyond it.

Of course there are situations in the world that are wrong. But the important thing is, as these old stories surface, they are finally getting attention to be dealt with once and for all. It is a time of great clarity in our lives and, surely to goodness, we have reached the point where we can face our past remorsefully/humbly/yet proudly with determination to do better now. We can address and resolve hidden issues and lovingly put them to rest, while moving forward with some confidence that THIS time, we’ll remember how to do it right.

As a result of this ‘New Dawn of Clarity and Vision’ people are coming together online - in city halls - in the parks of the world, to address issues that simply must change. The positive aspect of the ‘insanity being revealed’ is, finally MORE people are demanding resolutions; like the child at the seashore, beginning to BE ‘the hand’ that ‘saved that one’. It won’t stop until the apologies are complete - until the energetic litter left behind by those who went before us, and ‘those who are still among us’ is recycled into a New Improved Consciousness designed for the good of ALL.

Yes, local and world situations need attention but when that attention is given in a loving, solution-based mindset, THEN the magic of a new way begins to be the motor that turns the wheels of progress. When the not-so-ordinary people in the world Choose Peace within themselves and exude that 360°, the atmosphere of creation changes.

Our focus NOW is to add a dash of Peaceful Love to the mix - every day! Our opportunity for ourselves and others is to hold our heads high in the face of a crisis and create a new pathway to follow. There are enough people with their heads down believing it is impossible to bring change to the world. We CAN START - at home - in our own personal lives and turn up the light we know is there. It’s time to expand our horizons with minds, hearts and feet firmly planted. Ready to BE the inspiration in the face of a storm, and gently, by example, encourage others to do the same. One person at a time soon equates to an army without weapons.

Right now is a perfect time to release ourselves from the proverbial chains that bind us, to rise up and enter that precious place of peace within. Step into the CALM now, where your spirit is full and your mind abundant with good thoughts. The Calm, where you can believe in your dreams and confidently encourage their creation. Indeed, the Precious Calm Within - where you know that ‘The Storm’ simply doesn’t live here anymore.

To help you see that there is a rainbow behind every cloud lurking...we’ve put full colour on every page of this issue, so you can bask in the vibration of the full spectrum. And so, the Calm Within gets the message... Now is the time, we are the ones and we’re not waiting anymore. G\★
